THE OXFORD PROGRAMME IN YIDDISH

Ms Jean Nightingale
Administrative Director

Dr Dovid Katz
Director of Studies

General Information

1. Classes and activities are held at Manchester College.
2. The Summer Programme Office at Manchester College is open for book sales and enquiries from 1-3 PM. Students are respectfully requested not to make enquiries at the offices of the Oxford Centre at 45 St Giles.
3. Only registered students may attend morning classes and it is regretted that guests cannot be admitted. Students are welcome, however, to invite guests to afternoon and evening activities, subject to availability of space. Tape recording of classes is not permitted, but students are welcome to record guest lectures, subject to the lecturer's permission.
4. Smoking is not permitted during classes or any other Programme activities.
5. Coffee will be available at Manchester College during the morning break, 11-11:30 AM.
6. Students who wish to discuss academic aspects of the Programme or their own career plans in the field of Yiddish Studies, are invited to consult with Dr Katz on Thursdays, 4-5 PM, in his office on the first floor of 45 St Giles. If another student is consulting in the office, please wait in the Seminar Room.
